Effect

This Advance Pricing Agreement, entered into under Section 92CC of the Income-tax Act, 1961, provides certainty on the arm's length pricing of the covered related-party transaction for the agreement period. As a bilaterally agreed and government-endorsed arm's length price, it carries higher evidentiary value than an independent transfer pricing study for the purpose of GST related-party valuation under Section 15(4) read with Rule 28 of the CGST Rules, 2017.
